

Parlin-Ingersoll Public Library Social Networking Policy

The Parlin-Ingersoll Public Library uses various social media to inform and/or engage its public. The library currently uses its website and Facebook.

While the library encourages comments from the community, the library will remove comments, posts, links, photos, or other content for any reason, including harassment and personal attacks, derogatory or defamatory comments, vulgar or profane language, commercial promotion, improper use of copyrighted material, or other inappropriate content.

This policy is to be seen as a supplement to other library policies. While the issues addressed below are also covered in other library policies, given the changing nature of social media, they are worth repeating below:

- Protect all confidential information and abide by privacy policies.
- Be respectful of the library and others.
- Linked sites strive to be authoritative in content. Not all website solicitations to link to the library pages are added or answered.
- The library does not act in place of or in the absence of a parent and, therefore, is not responsible for enforcing restrictions which a parent or guardian may place on a minor's use of this resource.

Photos

Programs, events, and classes are photographed or videotaped for library promotional purposes. Notify library staff if you prefer that you or your child not be photographed. Photos may be placed on the library website or social media sites.

For any photos taken for specific promotions, individual consent will be obtained via the library publicity release form.
